HOTEL

The walls of the Hotel Mrak hide the rich history and poetic story of Slovenian playwright Ivan Mrak. His father, Valentin Mrak, bought a restaurant here in 1908, which soon became famous for its excellent traditional Slovenian cuisine and a popular meeting place for artists and intellectuals. It was beautifully furnished and had two guest rooms, named after their famous visitors, Prešeren and Aškerc. In 1918, the first meeting of the Slovenian national government took place here. Some historical photos of the Mrak family and the old restaurant are on display on the ground floor of the hotel.

Today, »@mrak« is a modern derivative of »Restaurant At Mrak's«, where we stay true to tradition by offering dishes made with local ingredients. We are proud to work with local farms and renowned suppliers such as Kukenberger, Pustotnik, Kodila, Ribogojstvo Goričar, Jajca Globočnik, Planika and others.

On warm days, you can feast in our secret garden, where Ljubljana's oldest vine reigns supreme.
